Spring of 1955 Merrill Gwynon Crandall & wife Afton Leo (Madge) Hancey Crandall made a contract with Pervo City to lease the Rotary Park and a 2 room log structure to run a roadside concession for visitors, tourists & fishermen: Pervo Canyon. at that time Mr Crandall was near 60 yrs of age & Madge was 37 yrs. OK. (59) 1m

Mr Crandall had had considerable experience as a concessionaire before and used fresh ideas & ingenuity in enticing clientele. Many fishermen & tourists would stop by to have dinner or a snack or fishing supplies. Their specialty was

Y2 # CHEESEBURGERS AND ROASTED NEVADA PINE NUTS EXCH FALL

During the ensuing years the children began to grow up. Byron was about 18, =17 Ray was about 16, Gill was 14, & Gordon was about 10 yrs old, when they first moved there about 1955

Ray explored around and revisited Bridal Veil Falls about the time Rue Clegg took over that operation.

Rue wanted to make Bridal Veil a sure stopping place & had had some experience @ a Cafe, Root Beer Stand & Dance Hall in Heber City.

Mr Hunziker out of Bishop
Calif.

Rue had hired a Swiss Engineer by the NAME OF BACHMANN AND WITH THE HELP OF HUNZIKER THEY installed a cable car from the road side to a cliff above on the south slope of Pervo Canyon.

Mr. HUNZIKER said some young vigorous help to Rue Day, tried Ray & Kenneth Gaudin from next door Robert C. Day was young, strong and interested to be during as work progressed well. at Ray Lane, Mr. Smith & Gaudin installed an airplane many go round for children, improved the safe men and built it up, generally. He died at Ray at age 76.5 there people, including Gaudin, came & the conversation became a good stay-over for many interested people -

Rotary
Park -2-

Mr needed some young vigorous help, so Rue Clegg hired Ray Hugmon Crandall from next door Lower Canyon. Ray was young, strong and interested & a bit daring so work progressed well.

At Rotary Park Mr Merrill & Crandall installed an airplane merry-go-round for children, improved the cafe menu and built it up, generally.

More people, including fishermen, came & the concession became a good stay-over for many interested people.
